 1. Truespeed reserves the right to extend this promotion at any point.
 2. Your billing relationship with Truespeed will start from the date your service goes live. You'll be charged for any Truespeed call plans, telephone services and calls (if pay as you go) from go live.
 3. The promotional price will be applied to your Truespeed invoices for the first 18 months from date of install. After 18 months your invoice will revert to the non-promotional price.

Any exclusions?

1. The promotion applies to broadband services only. You'll still be charged for any call plans you selected at the time of placing your order.
2. If you take a new number as part of your contract with Truespeed, any call plans selected will start being billed monthly, pro-rata'd from the date you went live.
3. If you take a new number as part of your contract with Truespeed and choose pay as you go, any calls made will be charged in your next monthly bill.
4. If you requested to port your existing phone number, your call plans and features will not go live and start being billed until your number has ported to Truespeed and is live. Any calls made on your Truespeed phone line between this time will be charged accordingly.

5. This promotion is not available to existing customers that are already in receipt of a Truespeed broadband service.
6. This promotion is not available in areas where we do not have a live ultrafast fibre network.
7. Truespeed reserves the right to stop this offer at any time.
8. You'll have a 14 day cooling off period from the date you place your order. Any promotion will not be applied to your account until after the 14 day period is passed at which point you'll then be subject to Truespeed termination terms and conditions, which can be found on our website <https://www.truespeed.com/terms/>
9. There will not be an option to reduce the contract term.
10. If you decide to cancel your contract at any point within the 18 month term, you will be liable for payment of exit charges based upon the non-promotional price of the product. For details of our early termination charges, please see <https://www.truespeed.com/terms/>
